

In January each year, the Foundation selects at least one Elizabeth Haub (Pace University) Law School student to receive a $5000 scholarship in honor of WWBA founding member and past President Hon. Sondra M. Miller.

Criteria the Foundation will consider in selecting a scholarship recipient

First, the Applicant must be in their second or third year of pursuing a J.D. degree.

Second, in order to achieve the stated purposes of the Westchester Women's Bar Association Foundation by providing scholarship, fellowship and other financial assistance to students and scholars, the following factors will be considered in selecting the scholarship winner:

- a. The applicant's history of community, volunteer and/or public service, either before or during law school;
- b. The applicant's clinical or internship involvement, if any;
- c. The applicant's ability to balance life responsibilities (i.e., personal, family, educational and job-related responsibilities);
- d. The applicant's academic record;
- e. The applicant's ability to overcome any form of personal adversity in pursuit of a legal career; and
- f. The applicant's intention to make future contributions to the Westchester County community.

The Foundation may also consider the applicant's financial need and any other factors that the applicant believes are relevant to our evaluations.

Required application materials

In order to be considered for this scholarship, the applicant must submit:

- (1) A copy of his or her official Pace Law School transcript;
- (2) One or more letters of recommendation, at least one of which should be from a Pace Law faculty member who is familiar with the applicant's academic credentials and character; and
- (3) A resume together with a personal statement of 250-500 words articulating why, in consideration of the above listed criteria, the applicant should be awarded the Justice Sondra Miller Scholarship.

Applicants may upload their personal statement and recommendations letters via the Westchester Women's Bar Association website. Official Elizabeth Haub School of Law at Pace University transcripts may be transmitted to WWBAF President Susan S. Brown at sbrown@glassmanbrown.com or via facsimile to 914-288-9291 or mailed to:

Glassman & Brown, LLP, att: Susan S. Brown
99 Court St., West Suite
White Plains, New York 10601

The deadline to submit application materials for the 2020 Justice Sondra Miller Scholarship is: January 17, 2020.

The Justice Sondra Miller Scholarship award will be presented to the chosen candidate at the Westchester Women's Bar Association's Annual Dinner on June 17, 2020. The winner must be present.
